Meet your housemates

I am an easy going women in my 20s, who enjoys listening to music, cooking and baking, as well as a lot of arts and crafts!

I prefer female support staff and am looking for a female housemate in a similar age who will be able to share my supports.

We support people to find their possible

At Cara, we're all about fun, friendship, learning and independence. Our mission is to bring joy, purpose and belonging to the lives of people we support.

We specialise in disability services for adults with severe and multiple disabilities. As a registered NDIS provider, we're experts in supporting people with complex needs, for over 76 years.

Cara is a South Australian leading, trusted not-for-profit organisation, putting every dollar back into our client centric model of supports.

We deliver person-centred active support, getting to know your likes, dislikes, and goals, big or small, so you can live life your way.

Cara brings unmatched expertise and experience to every person we support. Our team of professionals are experts in their fields, offering guidance to ensure you receive the best possible support.

We back this with robust quality and safeguarding systems, so you can feel confident and secure.

Our services

- Supported Independent Living (SIL)

It doesn't stop there

Once you've transitioned to our service, our dedicated teams will:

- Regularly check in with you and your circle of support to hear your feedback on our service.
- Help you to access supports within your budget.
- Assist you or your Support Coordinator to have your plan reassessed.
- Schedule your services.
- Dedicate a single point of contact at Cara for you and your support network.
- Stay up-to-date with the latest NDIS changes
- Monthly social catch-ups
- Access to inclusive Cara Partner events

We're not a disability service, we're a Possibility service.
